Extra: I pack my bag and in it I put...

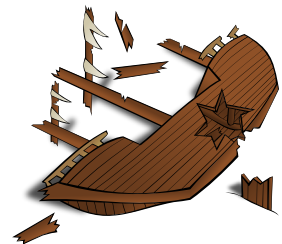

- ⑨ What will you pack into your bag when you find many useful things (nützliche Sachen) from a shipwreck that can help you survive on a lonely island?

a) In class, play the memory game „I packed my bag and in it I put...”

Game rules

I packed my bag is a memory game often played as a car game. In the traditional version of the game, one person says „I packed my bag and in it I put...“, and names any object. The next person then says „I packed my bag and in it I put...“, followed by the original suggestion, and adding their own. The game continues with more objects being added, and a player is disqualified if they forget one of the previously occurring items or can not think of a new item to add to the bag. The game continues until all but the winner has been disqualified.
