Present progressive

August: Mr Tushman is talking to August.

The Present Progressive is used to describe a picture.

Structure:

> We need the correct form of to be and then we add -ing to the verb.

> When a verb ends in -ie we change the -ie to -y then add -ing.

to die – dying to lie – lying

> When the verb ends in -e, we cut off the -e and add -ing

to come – coming to make – making

> When the verb ends in -m, -n, -p, -t, we double these letters and add -ing

to run – running to stop – stopping

A man is riding his bike.

A couple is sitting on a bench.

A man and a woman are jogging.
