

Back home, Nate tells his friends all about his trip to London:

"It was so cool in London! It was the last weekend of August and there were so many people everywhere. We visited Buckingham Palace, the London Eye..."

Das Verb 'to be' ist ein besonderes Verb.
Im Simple Past hat es zwei Formen: was und were

Singular (Einzahl)

I was	ich war
you were	du warst / Sie waren
he was	er war
she was	sie war
it was	es war

Plural (Mehrzahl)

we were	wir waren
you were	ihr wart / Sie waren
they were	sie waren

- ① Now complete Nate's story. Use was or were. Jetzt vervollständige Nate's Erzählung.
Verwende was oder were.

London great! My little sister and I
there last weekend.

She very excited, because it her first time in London.

Buckingham Palace really beautiful. And did you know that Big Ben weighs 13 tonnes? Pretty cool.

We also visited the London Eye. My sister and I so happy!

The weather sunny, and Green Park
perfect for a little break.

At the end of the day, we very tired, but it
 a fantastic trip.
