Watch the video 'Union is strength'.

① Read the video description.

A single crab is at the beach.

A seagull notices the crab and starts to attack.

The crab calls its friends.

Together they form a square.

Everyone lifts up one pincer.

The seagull attacks and loses all of its feathers!

A line of ants walks along a path.

All ants carry something.

The last ant gets sucked away by a big ant eater.

The commander ant calls all ants to help.

The ants build a ball, which the ant eater sucks to its trunk.

The ant ball blocks the trunk of the ant eater and it cannot breathe anymore.

A group of penguins sits on a piece of ice, which floats through the ocean.

A fin appears in the water.

Then the orca emerges from the water and swims toward the penguins.

One penguin notices the orca and calls its friends for action.

All penguins move to one side. The other side of the ice shifts.

The orca hits the piece of ice.
