Part 1: Reading „Queen Victoria and Looty“

The Royal Family of the United Kingdom has always loved animals. They were famous for their horses, but also for their dogs.

Queen Victoria lived in the 19th century. She became queen in 1837 and ruled until 1901. She was the longest ruling queen of her time.

Victoria loved dogs very much. She had many pets during her lifetime. One of her most famous dogs was Looty. Looty was a very small dog. He came from China. A British officer gave Looty to Queen Victoria as a gift.

The Queen was very happy about her new pet. Looty lived with her in the royal residences and quickly became a member of the family. Everybody loved him because he was friendly and cute.
