AB: Viewing English R 7

Watch this short tale of 'Gwyllion | Fairy Folk of the Welsh Mountains'

1) Fill the correct words into the gaps.

which who whose
The story of the Gwyllion	C	describes a fairy fol	lk	home is in the Welsh mountains.
The fairies	haunt at night,	try to scare hikers		are resting.
There are several stories of	of men	hiking was i	nterrupted by fer	male looking creatures. Hikers	follow th	ese creatures are o	certain to loose tl	neir path.
The legend	is told in Wales	s says, that people		draw their knife are safe. It is known	that the Gwyllion	t	ale is well known	to the Welsh, do not like knifes and will	leave.

2 Which of these statements are true and which are false?

	true	false
The fairies also visit houses, especially in stormy nights.	0	0
The house owners put out all their knives to scare the Gwyllion away.	0	0
The Gwyllion like to sit at the fireside.	0	0
People like the Gwyllion.	0	0
The fairy folk helps hikers through the mountains.	0	0

AB: Viewing

Watch these funny outtakes from an interview with an old Welsh lady.

achwir true

diwyneb-uniawn false

(1) Which of these statements are true and which are false?

	achwir	diwyneb-uniawn
The reporter asks her questions.	0	0
The reporter is upset.	\circ	0
The old lady is getting it right the first time.	0	0
They are talking about an upcoming match.	\circ	0
The old lady speaks English with an accent.	0	0

₩elsh (Cymraeg)

Welsh is a Celtic language spoken in Wales (Cymru) by about 740,000 people, and in the Welsh colony (y Wladfa) in Patagonia, Argentina (yr Ariannin) by several hundred people. There are also Welsh speakers in England (Lloegr), Scotland (yr Alban), Canada, the USA (yr Unol Daleithiau), Australia (Awstralia) and New Zealand (Seland Newydd).

Find more Welsh words here:

