

AB: Viewing

English R 7

Watch this short tale of
'Gwyllion | Fairy Folk of the Welsh Mountains'

① Fill the correct words into the gaps.

which who whose

The story of the Gwyllion describes a fairy folk home is in the Welsh mountains.

The fairies haunt at night, try to scare hikers are resting.

There are several stories of men hiking was interrupted by female looking creatures. Hikers follow these creatures are certain to lose their path.

The legend is told in Wales says, that people draw their knife are safe. It is known that the Gwyllion tale is well known to the Welsh, do not like knives and will leave.

② Which of these statements are true and which are false?

	true	false
The fairies also visit houses, especially in stormy nights.	☐	☐
The house owners put out all their knives to scare the Gwyllion away.	☐	☐
The Gwyllion like to sit at the fireside.	☐	☐
People like the Gwyllion.	☐	☐
The fairy folk helps hikers through the mountains.	☐	☐

AB: Viewing

English R 7

Watch these funny outtakes from an interview with an old Welsh lady.

achwir
=
true

diwyneb-uniawn
=
false

① Which of these statements are true and which are false?

	achwir	diwyneb-uniawn
The reporter asks her questions.	☐	☐
The reporter is upset.	☐	☐
The old lady is getting it right the first time.	☐	☐
They are talking about an upcoming match.	☐	☐
The old lady speaks English with an accent.	☐	☐

Welsh (Cymraeg)

Welsh is a Celtic language spoken in Wales (Cymru) by about 740,000 people, and in the Welsh colony (y Wladfa) in Patagonia, Argentina (yr Ariannin) by several hundred people. There are also Welsh speakers in England (Lloegr), Scotland (yr Alban), Canada, the USA (yr Unol Daleithiau), Australia (Awstralia) and New Zealand (Seland Newydd).

Find more Welsh words here:

