

An African Love Story

English Reading 10

An African Love Story

- ① Read the text on pages 50/51 in your textbook.
- ② Write down all the words you don't understand and include them into your vocabulary system.
- ③ Do the exercises 2-5 on page 52. These are typical exam tasks.

In case you'd like to work digital you'll also find the tasks below.

- ④ Exercise 2: Information on the text
Give the lines in the text where you find the following information.

- The people of Botswana's first reaction to Ruth. - Line
- Unfair tactics were used to try to make it impossible for Seretse to live in his country. - Line .
- The sad situation in Botswana after years of British rule. - Line .
- The reason why governments in several countries didn't want Botswana to succeed as an independent country. - Line .
- The government strategy for having fewer prejudices between people from different regional groups. - Line .
- Many people in Botswana don't have a job. - Line .

An African Love Story

English Reading 10

⑤ Exercise 3: Ruth and Seretse

The text describes Ruth and Seretse's marriage as political dynamite. Explain in your own words why that was so.

It was social dynamite because ...

It was political dynamite because ...

⑥ Exercise 4: Words in the text

You can do this exercise in two different levels.

Easy: page 52, exercise 4

