① Simple Present or Simple Past?
Write the sentences where you have to decide on your sheet.

A: Excuse me, is this chair free?

B: Sure.

A: Thanks. That's better. I (1) do/did a lot of surfing today – I'm tired.
I (2) need/needed a coffee. Can I get you something?

B: That's kind, but no thanks.

A: You sure? By the way, my name's Brad.

B: I'm Hannah.

A: Nice to meet you. Where (3) are/were you from, Hannah? You've got an accent.

B: From Germany.

A: Really? My family is originally from Italy. How long have you been here?

B: I (4) arrive/arrived just a few days ago. I'm here on holiday.

A: Is it your first time in Australia?

B: Yes. But my aunt and my cousins (5) live/lived here, so I'm staying with them.

A: Right. And what do you plan to do here? Travel around? Have you seen the sights?

B: Well, I (6) want/wanted to take the train to Sydney and Melbourne, and maybe go on a tour of the Outback, you know, Uluru - Ayers Rock.

A: Yes, it's great. I (7) go/went last year. You'll love it.

B: I (8) hope/hoped so.

A: Listen, I've got to go home and eat now, but later there's a great band playing. We (9) get/got some tickets yesterday, but one of my friends is ill. Do you want to come?

B: Well, I'm not sure … my cousin (10) asks/asked me to go to the cinema with him.

A: Bring your cousin, too.

B: Well, that sounds nice. We can always see the film tomorrow.
